Benefits Consulting

What should you expect from your CPI-HR Benefits Consultant?

At CPI-HR we are more than just a broker of benefits. We are a partner. CPI-HR has been providing unique and innovative solutions to the healthcare puzzle for over ten years.

It has been our mission to enhance our client companies' people and profit. We achieve our mission by partnering with clients to create a comprehensive health care management strategy that will fit your organization's needs. We provide tools for communication and education to engage employees so that they can become informed consumers of health care.

At CPI-HR, negotiating and renewing your benefits plan is just the beginning of what we execute for you throughout the year. We help you implement your plan and then provide comprehensive, ongoing client management and customer service so you can focus your efforts on managing your business.

Our knowledgeable consultants are supported by a strong team of professionals. We pride ourselves on building a foundation of trust with our clients based on sound advice and relevant industry practices.

Your Dedicated Service Team is committed to delivering the following services:
